

About AWE	News	Scientific and Technical	Business	Careers	Site Map
-----------	------	--------------------------	----------	---------	----------

You are not logged in.

quick search

Profile

Login

Index

List

To maintain and update the Product Assessments.

Trident Assessments Manager

Full Search	Engineering - Mechanical
What's New?	Full Time
This Week	Aldermaston
This Month	Dependent on Experience
Register	27/11/02/650450
Experienced
Graduates

Responsibilities

Owner of the Weapon Assessments, responsible for the updating and maintenance to current weapon assessments.
Liaison with Safety Case activities.
Regulator Interface for Design Manager(Systems) team.
Liaison with Nuclear Physics team.
Liaison with Approvals team.

Qualifications

Degree in Systems Engineering or a related technology based subject or an HNC plus relevant experience

Knowledge

Experience

Skills

Knowledge of military systems.
Experience in the analysis and assessment of military systems.
Experience of office-based computer applications.
Generation of concise technical reports.
Willing to undertake MSc in Systems Engineering.

Special Requirements

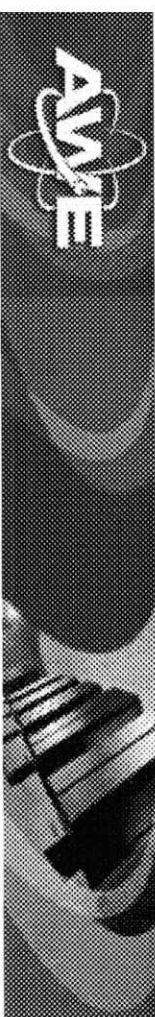

Behaviours

Key accountabilities

Apply now on-line

iCams Enterprise: powered by hireserve.com

Send to a friend

You are not logged in.

quick search

profile

Login

links

List

Full Search

What's New?

This Week

This Month

Register

Experienced

Graduates

Warhead Electrical Systems Developer

To be a member of a team involved in the design and development of Electrical Systems. To build capability in the area of Arming Fuzing and Firing systems and their integration into systems

Discipline	Engineering - Systems Engineer
Employment Basis	Full Time
Location	Aldermaston
Salary Range	Dependant on experience
Job Reference	27/11/01/650416

Responsibilities

To provide the required level of capability in the area of Warhead Electrical Systems (WES), including development of relevant skills.
 Be part of the process to ensure that appropriate staff and facilities are available to meet the needs of our customer.
 To assist in the execution of appropriate programmes to ensure that capability is developed and maintained.
 Input appropriately to programme studies.
 Assistance with programme development and execution.
 Maintain and encourage outreach activities
 Promote Business best practice (e.g. IIP and partnership)

Qualifications

Achieved or working towards Chartered Membership of an appropriate Institute.

Knowledge

Experience

Skills

Knowledge across an appropriate high integrity programming environment & toolset/design space.
 Ability to understanding technical specifications and requirements of Warhead Electrical Systems.
 General management capabilities of self.

Interpersonal skills to communicate competently.

Special Requirements

Behaviours

Key accountabilities

Apply now on-line

Send to a friend

About AWE	News	Scientific and Technical	Business	Careers	Site Map
-----------	------	--------------------------	----------	---------	----------

You are not logged in.

quick search

Profile

Login

Jobs

List

Full Search

What's New?

This Week

This Month

Register

Experienced

Graduates

Warhead Processing Engineer

To provide engineering weapon design support in aid of the Trident processing programmes as directed by the Engineering Manager.

Discipline	Engineering - Mechanical
Employment Basis	Full Time
Location	Aldermaston
Salary Range	Dependent on experience
Job Reference	27/11/02/650449

Responsibilities

the Trident weapon Design Authorities involvement in the development of the Trident assembly and disassembly process, the maintenance of the Trident Design Authority specifications covering the configuration control, use and recertification of weapon training hardware.

To gain an understanding and then apply the Company's Environment, Health, Safety, Security and Quality Standards.

To represent the Engineering Manager at Design, Technical and Process reviews / meetings.

To provide weapon design support and guidance to technical staff during processing activities

To represent the Engineering Manager during Slow Run Thoroughs and Process Run Thoroughs.

To provide weapon design support and guidance to technical staff during processing

To produce technical reports / minutes as requested by the Engineering Manager.

To assist the Weapon Processing team with additional technical activities where necessary.

Qualifications

Degree / HNC / HND in an appropriate engineering discipline and relevant engineering experience plus Incorporated Engineer status is essential.

Knowledge

Experience

Skills

Good general engineering knowledge in the fields of design, manufacture, configuration control and process control.
Work experience in highly regulated work environments would be advantageous but not essential.
Able to communicate in a clear, concise and unambiguous way when exchanging information (verbal and written) at all levels
Capable of working well within a small team to meet company goals and objectives;

Special Requirements

Behaviours

Key accountabilities

Apply now on-line

Send to a friend

ifCams Enterprise: powered by hireserve.com

About AWE	News	Scientific and Technical	Business	Careers	Site Map
-----------	------	--------------------------	----------	---------	----------

You are not logged in.

quick search

Profile

Login

Structural Engineer

Jobs

To provide structural engineering advice on all aspects of the blast and fire damage methodology developments conducted as part of the Systems Assessment capability area, and advice and design experience on the trials run under the Nuclear Intelligence programme.

List

Full Search

What's New?

This Week

This Month

Register

Experienced

Graduates

Discipline

Engineering - Structural

Employment Basis

Full Time

Location

Aldermaston

Salary Range

Dependent on Experience

Job Reference

27/11/02/650190

Responsibilities

Undertake detailed design studies of a wide range of civilian and military structures.
Assist with the identification of rapid structural response methodologies.
Advise on the use of Finite Element Modelling and Finite Difference for data generation purposes.
Undertake the design work associated with blast trials.

Qualifications

Good honours degree in structural engineering.
Chartered Engineer status.

Knowledge

Experience

Skills

Building codes for a wide range of civil and military structures.
Engineering drawing standards.
Experience in civil engineering research or constructional projects.
Ability to use standard office software, e.g. Microsoft Office products.
Able to program computers at a basic level to provide numerical data.

Able to work effectively within a team.
Good communication skills, both written and oral.

Special Requirements

Behaviours

Key accountabilities

Apply now on-line

Send to a friend

iCams Enterprise: powered by hireserve.com