I deplore Britain's continued planning for nuclear war. Our possession of genocidal war machines is a charter for all other countries to do likewise. I denounce the acquisition of new Trident nuclear submarines, an act of nuclear proliferation and a reckless extension to our nuclear arsenal. I oppose the transport of nuclear bombs through our countryside, towns and cities.

THEREFORE I DEMAND THAT THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT:

- A. Cancel the Trident programme forthwith.
- B. Give full and active support to a comprehensive Nuclear Test Ban Treaty.
- C. Implement the Non-Proliferation Treaty ~~already signed~~ by undertaking to eliminate all British nuclear systems within a stated period.
- D. ~~Seek to strengthen the Non-Proliferation treaty by introducing a timetable for the world-wide elimination of all nuclear weapons.~~

It perhaps reads better with an "and" after the comma.

Suggest add "British" to clarify ( "British " rather than "UK" which is more remote and institutional)

Suggest add "world-wide" to contrast with "British" in previous sentence.
