England

DISARM THE SEAS 26th May - 4th June

subverting the INF deal with cruise especially around port visits; sinking ships; accident dangers and threatening: submarines the arms race at sea is damaging highlighting one of the many ways into simple concrete terms by weapon. You can put this theme 40th anniversary, and against well with CND's focus on NATO's naval nuclear strategies. This fits will be to highlight aggressive Seas have agreed that the theme Pacific Campaign to Disarm the North Atlantic Network and the now for this week of action. The Don't forget to start making plans coming back on ships and subs contribution to the arms race at sovereignty; and Britain's own of naval forces to subvert national and, especially in the Pacific, use violation of nuclear-free zones waters close to the Soviet Union; exercises, especially in Arctic provocative US and NATO naval Trident, an escalatory First Strike especially for inland groups, background information, ideas, from Margo Sweeney, CND other groups is available by post groups who wish to twin with during this week, and contacts for materials already available to use 22/24 Underwood Street, London A resource list giving sources of

MARCH 89 CAMPAIGN

Report on the SCANN Conference

England. South Coast Against Nuclear Navies was formed in 1987 to provide a regional focus for Disarm the Seas work in the South of campaigning: working conference, with planning done for the following areas of Midlands and Faslane Peacecamp (Scotland). of England, but there were also representatives from London, West attended by about 35 peace activists. Most came from the South SCANN held its first conference llth-12th February this year It was very much a

- * Monitoring the movements of nuclear ships and submarines port visits and incidents. and building a network to respond to the most significant
- * Monitoring and protesting against the transport of nuclear centres around nuclear reactors berthing in ports near population * Public Safety Schemes and accident dangers especially weapons or materials throughout the region by land or sea.
- protests whenever it tried to make a port visit.
 * Disarm the Seas campaigning with a focus on what inland groups can do; what to do for Disarm the Seas Week; making Ark Royal returned from Australia where it had met repeated out autonomous actions using small boats for water-borne protests. international links (see twinning elsewhere...) Sea Action -- a newly formed group to prepare and carry Their first action was a 'welcome home' when the

A message of support was drafted to be sent to Kobe, Japan, in dangers they posed to the population of Portsmouth. support of their 14 years as a nuclear free port, and a statement Blue Joyce and William Peden, 11 Oxford Avenue, Southhampton. highlighting the potential dangers in the case of an accident to of port safety around nuclear powered submarine or ship visits to the local council expressing concern over the secrecy they said it was impossible to draw up adequate safety plans. Hull City Council refused entry to a nuclear powered sub because 29th, the Saturday after the anniversary of Chernobyl. Contact the nuclear reactor. (berths certified for use by nuclear powered vessels) surrounding port visits by nuclear powered vessels and the led to the idea of a day of action in all the towns with z-berths +44/703-636229. The date suggested for this action is April Inspiration came from the report of how Discussions

Oceanology' exhibition and conference taking place in Brighton March 15th-17th. (For more details contact Duncan, c/o Bright Peace Centre, 28 Trafalgar Street, Brighton, BNI 4ED, telephone An action was planned to protest at an international 'Defence +44/273-692880, or Dominy, telephone +44/273-21782.) (For more details contact Duncan, c/o Brighton and were unable to send representatives to the conference base on the South coast of England) is in the midst of a highly successful campaign against a proposed naval nuclear waste dump Plymouth (the site of Devonport, the other large British Nava are in port. SCANN is especially keen to hear of and link up with other groups protesting against ship visits, particularly when the same ships can be 'greeted' again on their return to Portsmouth or other British ports. form of accidents and pollution to local populations while they Poseidon and French submarines, nuclear capable and nuclear existing ballistic missile submarines including Irident, Polaris Overall the conference agreed that after the INF treaty it was in nuclear weaponry, but they also pose a serious danger in the race at a time when the door is wide open for further reductions reactors a threat to world peace, and an escalation in the arms powered ships and submarines. Not only are these weapons and important to refocus on Sea-Taunched cruise missiles, new and

For more info contact SCANN, 117 Orchard Road, Southsea, Hants, PO4 OAD, telephone +44/705 811603, or Kate Cameron-Daum,

-
M 3 10 17 T 4 11 18 W 5 12 19 T 6 13 20 F 7 14 21 S 1 8 15 22 S 2 9 16 23	April	July ls		Мау	16th	April 1st
225 226 227 228 230		lst-2nd	2		4
1 8 15 22 29 2 9 16 23 30 3 10 17 24 31 4 11 18 25 5 12 19 26 6 13 20 27 7 14 21 28		Norwich, England 5th National standin Radiation and Health. Greenhouse, 48 Bethel UK.	  	26th to June 4th Disarm the Seas Week So far not many plans for this.	Brussels, Belgium Demonstration again systems. Contact:- 8000, Brugge. +32/5	Hammersmith Town Hall, London, England Conference: Exposing and campaigning NATO. Contact: CNA +44/1-263-9450
5 12 19 26 6 13 20 27 7 14 21 28 1 8 15 22 29 2 9 16 23 30 3 10 17 24 4 11 18 25		Norwich, England 5th National standing conference on Low Level Radiation and Health. Contact: - Davida Higgin, Greenhouse, 48 Bethel St, Norwich, Norfolk NR2 UK.	A week of cultural and social events. A demonstration against homeporting a Possibly demos against the 'Host Agre	k t many organisations have finalised this.	gium against Lance and INF missile tact:- CACTUS, St-Amandstraat +32/50-33.20.14	ll, London, England ng and campaigning against A +44/1-263-9450
3 10 17 24 4 11 18 25 5 12 19 26 6 13 20 27 7 14 21 28 1 8 15 22 29 2 9 16 23 30	July	evel gin, NR2 INR,	social events. t homeporting at City Hall the 'Host Agreement'	we finalised	t 13,	nst