Dear

Thank you for your letter of 16 September, concerning the nuclear accident exercise at Faslane. I imagine that you would wish to be informed of the effectiveness of the procedures adopted, and have therefore written to George Robertson, Secretary of State for Defence, asking him to send me a copy of the relevant report of the November exercise when it comes to hand. I am sure that you would agree that requesting an earlier statement of MoD policy would be fruitless if it is to be superseded by procedures based on the latest experience from the forthcoming exercise.

Yours sincerely,

 MARTIN O'NEILL MP
