NUCLEAR BUNKERS

The new bunker is at Cultybraggan Training Camp near Comrie in Perthshire, it is described in an article from the Observer in April 1989 as the new "zone headquarters" which would accomodate the Secretary of State for Scotland. Local CND members are concern about what the role of the bunker is.

The Observer article refers to a second new bunker to be built in the grounds of Peel Hospital near Galashields, but we have no further information on this.

One large old bunker at Anstruther in Fife has been turned into a nuclear war museum. A second one at Kirknewton, near Edinburgh, has been turned into a nightclub.
