

suicide woman

A 38-year-old divorced mother, who was obsessed with the Chernobyl nuclear disaster and worried about food being contaminated by radio-activity, threw herself from the window of her 19th floor tower block home, an inquest heard yesterday.

Mrs Angelina Monkton, of Greenfell Towers, Notting Hill, died from multiple injuries, the Westminster coroner, Dr Paul Knapman, was told. He recorded a verdict that she killed herself.

21/9/86

TEL